

Quick Reference Guide

This document is the 2005/2006 Biennial Budget for Clark County, Washington. It contains a wide variety of information about the community and the programs of county government and ranges from a one-page summary of the entire County budget to a two hundred thirty-six page program-by-program breakdown. The purpose of this guide is to explain how the document is organized and to help you find the information you are looking for. Four tools are provided to assist you. The first is a list of the most commonly asked questions about the budget along with section references and page numbers. The next page provides a more detailed explanation about how this document is organized. It will help you get to the right layer of information. Next is a traditional table of contents, which outlines the entire document and, finally, a detailed subject index located at the back of the document.

To Answer This Question	Refer To Tab	Page(s)
How much is the 2005-2006 budget?	Executive Summary	preface
What are the major issues facing the County?	Executive Summary Strategic Planning	preface 10-17
What are the primary services we are budgeting for?	Strategic Planning	17-18
Where does the County get its revenue?	Financial	60-68
What does the County spend its money on?	Executive Summary Financial Function Section	preface 53-59 81-316
What are the County's budget objectives?	Strategic Planning	19-20
How much is the General Fund budget?	Financial	35
What is the financial condition of the County?	Financial	33-34
How is the County organized?	The County	1-9
How is the budget developed?	Strategic Planning	25-27